

HCTF McCubbing Scholarship Application Questions

Applicant Information

- Name, mailing address, email and contact number.
- Name of your post-secondary institution.
- Name of faculty sponsor and/or supervisor. Name of graduate supervisor in applicable.

Summary of Research Project

This can be an undergraduate thesis or directed studies independent research project as part of your 4th year of a post-secondary BSc. program.

Research Project Title

1. Project Description - Please provide a lay summary of your project to be used in public communications. Max 250 words.
2. Provide a brief background and overview of the main idea or the research project.
3. Describe the conservation issue or topic the project is addressing.
4. Research Questions- Explicitly state your research hypothesis or objectives.
5. Research Methods- Describe methodical approaches that are linked to your research questions.
6. Briefly outline the timeline for your work.
7. What motivated you to select this topic for your research?
8. How does your area of study specifically relate to the objectives of the Habitat Conservation Trust Foundation and to the legacy of Don McCubbing?
9. How might the experience of doing this project influence your goals after completion of your undergraduate program?
10. Why are you a strong candidate for the Don McCubbing scholarship?

References

- The HCTF requires a confirmation recommendation from your Faculty sponsor and project supervisor. This can be the same person but in situations where you have a graduate supervisor different than your Faculty sponsor, they too will need to submit a confirmation.
- Confirmations by your faculty sponsor and supervisor are collected through the HCTF's online system.

